

Example of Youth Development Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of youth development. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for youth development

- Develops a brand and key messaging for the youth development campaigns
- Performs professional work that requires detailed, specialized knowledge in fields of development
- Provides direction and guidance as it relates to youth workforce development and partnership support
- Creates and develops innovative and interactive workshop curriculum's based on research, national trends, feedback from youth
- Develops programming that directly correlates with college & career awareness/preparation, financial awareness, entrepreneurship and pathway opportunities
- Works directly with SuccessLink employees, Mayor's Youth Council, BCYF sites and local schools and community based organizations
- Works with university and community-based partners to develop material that includes technology and language appropriate for target age and cultural groups
- Trains youth staff workers, partners, and site managers on how to deliver workshops
- Coaches youth and adults learners on public speaking, professional etiquette
- Researches and stays abreast with current youth facilitation techniques and integrates proven methods into training curriculum to further enhance youth development and engagement

Qualifications for youth development

- Enjoys working in a variety of settings and environments with diverse audiences
- Ability to think quickly and adapt to changing circumstances
- Ability to plan and implement said plan
- Strong interpersonal skills with proven ability to work effectively with schools, community and funding partners
- Degree in Education and/or Human/Youth Development
- Direct experience working with youth