

Example of Youth Development Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of youth development. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for youth development

- Coordinates youth workshops and on-line modules
- Works with Director to review and make necessary adjustments training tools, and develop new methods as the work requires
- Deliver high quality 4-H Youth Development educational programs and events that address local, regional and statewide 4-H Youth Development programming priorities with emphasis on Agriculture in the Classroom
- Provide educational programs to students in traditional classroom settings at local public and private schools in non-traditional settings, such as home-school groups and summer recreation programs
- Provide educational program efforts via mass media including contributing articles to 4-H newsletter, utilizing emails, phone messages, and website postings
- Assist Supervisor with development of 4-H Youth Development educational programs with emphasis on Animal Science (Dairy, Goat), Teen Leaders, Conservation, STEM (Electricity, Woodworking), and School Programming including Agriculture in the Classroom to meet identified needs and diverse interests of participants and volunteers
- Develops conceptual frameworks that address research and evaluation topics
- Oversees the planning, design, and implementation of project methods, procedures and reporting
- Serves as Project Director or Principal Investigator, directing / managing, large, complex research projects or a series of smaller projects
- Reviews, analyzes, and synthesizes data and information using appropriate

Qualifications for youth development

- Experience writing/researching grant opportunities
- Experience in coordinating and working in an afterschool setting
- At least a Bachelor's degree, with a strong preference for a Master's degree with substantive coursework related to youth development
- Design and implementation of complex initiatives within the education system and/or led significant system change
- Collaboration and engagement with diverse stakeholders and communities and
- Experience in fundraising or outside sales or in a non-profit organization in a similar capacity